

COURSE DESCRIPTION

PRA2100 Project Work and Organizational Understanding

1. Degree	Bachelor's degree in Innovation and Entrepreneurship
2. Year/semester	2 nd year – 4 th semester
3. Credits	20
4. Course instructor	Assistant Professor Stein Juvik
5. Contact hours	100 hours
6. Course prerequisites	General admission requirements. Project Management, 1 st year.
7. Learning goals	The course will provide students with an introduction to organizational topics and basic concepts in the field. On the basis of theories relating to organization and management students will learn to identify problem areas specifically related to innovation processes in organizations, and discuss and propose measures to deal with these.
8. Course contents	The course will provide students with an introduction to the most important topics within organizational theory, organizational psychology and management. The course will demonstrate different perspectives on how people think and act in organizations, especially when the organization is involved in innovation efforts. The course is divided into three parts: basic theories in organizational theory; organizational psychology; and management. Central themes will be: organizational understanding in a historical perspective; the structuring of organizations; change in organizations; working conditions and gender; organizational culture; motivation; job satisfaction; group behavior; and the theories and methods of management.

9. Method of instruction	The course will include lectures and small case exercises related to the course's various main topics. Project-based learning with supervision: Roughly 40% of the time and effort expended on the course will be used on the design, completion and presentation of a project related to one/several of the course's main topics.
10. Assessment	The part-examination/course assignment will be solved in groups of up to three students over a period of approx. 10 weeks. The part-examination counts for 40 % of the course grade. The final examination is an individual written examination without examination aids which counts for 60 % of the course grade.
11. Course syllabus	Jacobsen, Dag Ingvar, og Thorsvik, Jan. 2007. Hvordan organisasjoner fungerer. 3rd edition. Bergen: Fagbokforlaget. ISBN: 978-82-450-0517-2. (467 pages) Price: NOK 469. Kaufmann, Geir, og Astrid Kaufmann. 2003. Psykologi i organisasjon og ledelse. 3rd edition Bergen: Fagbokforlaget. ISBN: 82-7674-863-5. (407 pages) Price: NOK 454. Berg, Morten Emil (2008). Ledelse – verktøy og virkemidler Oslo: Universitetsforlaget, (240 pages).
12. Recommended reading	Busch, Tor, og Vanebo, Jan Ole. 2003. Organisasjon og ledelse: et integrert perspektiv. 5th edition. Oslo: Universitetsforlaget. ISBN: 978-82-15-00465-5. Kolltveit, Bjørn J. og Reve, Torger. 2002. Prosjekt – organisering, ledelse og gjennomføring. 2nd edition, Universitetsforlaget Røvik, Kjell A. 2007. Trender og translasjoner – ideer som former det 21. århundrets organisasjon. Universitetsforlaget